

Residential Charging Solutions Household Summary Form

You may be eligible for Residential Charging Solutions if you meet the annual gross income limits set by the California Department of Housing and Community Development for your household size for the county within the Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) territory in which you resided at the time of equipment purchase. To determine if you are eligible, please fill out, sign, date, and return this Household Summary Form.

- Household size includes the taxpayer(s) and any individuals who are claimed as dependents on one federal income tax return. A tax household may include a spouse and/or dependents. Individuals that reside at the electric service agreement address but are not listed on the applicant’s filed tax return will not be included in the “household size” for the purposes of the Rebate.
- Household income includes, but is not limited to, the following: Wages, unemployment, workers' compensation, Social Security, Supplemental Security Income, public assistance, veterans' payments, survivor benefits, pension or retirement income, interest, dividends, rents, royalties, income from estates, trusts, educational assistance, alimony, child support, assistance from outside the household, and other miscellaneous sources.

1. Fill out lines A, B and C below regarding your household size at the time of equipment purchase. Enter “0” if N/A.
