Filipino Employees Association of Pacific Gas & Electric Company

FEA of PG&E is an employee association committed to making a positive contribution to PG&E and the communities it serves. Awarding scholarships to stellar students is one way we show that commitment. As an organization, we want to provide our youth a helping hand in achieving higher education and the opportunities it provides. We believe this is a wise investment for all of us.

We will be awarding $1,000 scholarships to ten (10) deserving college-bound high school seniors at an awards ceremony on Thursday, August 3rd 2006 (see below).

Eligibility

- Open to ALL college-bound high school seniors applying to community colleges and/or four-year colleges/universities (applicants of all ethnicities are eligible)
- Minimum GPA: 3.50
- Resident of the PG&E service area
- Active participant and/or leader in school and the community

Requirements

- Signed and completed application form
- Copy of SAT scores
- Copy of acceptance letters from university/college
- Topic essay
- Sealed current copy of official school transcripts
- Letters of recommendation from teachers, community leaders, mentors, or work supervisor (minimum two).

Please mail completed application form with other required documentation no later than Friday, April 28, 2006. The envelope must be postmarked by this date.

Personal interviews with scholarship finalists will be conducted May 17-20, 2006. Successful candidates will be contacted by Friday, May 26, 2006.

Awards will be presented at the FEA of PG&E's 2006 Scholarship Program Awards Ceremony on Thursday, August 3rd 2006, 5:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m. at our corporate headquarters, 245 Market Street, Conference Room A&B, San Francisco, CA.
