Architects and Engineers
Electrical Contractors
Plumbing Contractors
City and County Building Inspectors
Manufacturers of Electrical Equipment
Pacific Gas and Electric Company Employees

Revised April 2011

2011 Edition

(Supersedes All Previous Editions and Revisions)

The Electric and Gas Service Requirements is a guide to Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) requirements and policies for establishing electric and gas service to new or remodeled applicant installations.

In addition to the utility requirements, local or state officials may stipulate additional provisions for the installation of equipment and materials that are in their authorized areas of responsibility and jurisdiction.

Should you have any questions regarding this manual, please call your local PG&E representative (see “Service Planning Contact Information” located in front of the “Table of Contents”).

Applicant gas and electric service and meter installation arrangements are subject to PG&E’s review and approval. Applicants should contact their local PG&E representatives as soon in the planning process as possible.

NOTE: The acronym PG&E will be used throughout this manual to designate Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

Notice: This Manual Is Subject to Change

Information and requirements in this manual are subject to change over time.

The online versions of the Electric & Gas Service Requirements, located at www.pge.com/greenbook, will be updated as quickly as possible when changes occur. The bound manual will not be reprinted until the next scheduled print date regardless of changes in processes or requirements. Therefore, it is imperative that applicants for all new business gas and electric service projects consult the online version of this book (www.pge.com/greenbook) before finalizing project plans.

PG&E:
 More than just a utility . . .
 a full service company!
