Advice 2821-G-A/3015-E-A

(Pacific Gas and Electric Company ID U 39 M)

Public Utilities Commission of the State of California

Subject: Supplement - Interim Service Agreement and Request for Service Sample Form Improvements and New Forms

Purpose

Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) hereby submits for filing modifications to its existing gas and electric Interim Service Agreement (Form 02-2590) and Request for Service (Form 62-3282). PG&E is also submitting new Authorization to Receive Customer Information or Act upon a Customer's Behalf (English - Form 79-1095 and Spanish - Form 79-1096), Request Change of Mailing Address to a Third Party Change of Address (Form 79-1097), and Property Manager Authorization to Receive Owner Information or Act on an Owner's Behalf (Form 79-1099). This filing entirely supersedes Advice 2821-G/3015-E. This supplement includes a form that was inadvertently missing from Advice 2821-G/3015-E and also includes modifications to certain forms.

Background

Interim Service Agreement (Form 02-2590)

The Interim Service Agreement has been improved to include the option that allows a customer to choose both gas and electric service or just service for one commodity.

Request for Service (Form 62-3282)

The Request for Service application (to be used in conjunction with the Interim Service Agreement) has been updated to be more customer-friendly. Specifically, an e-mail address is requested and the language regarding the need for a social security number is clarified.

Authorization to Receive Customer Information or Act upon a Customer's Behalf (English - Form 79-1095 and Spanish - Form 79-1096)

The new Authorization to Receive Customer Information or Act upon a Customer's Behalf (English and Spanish) is being filed to provide a customer the ability to authorize a third party to act as their agent or consultant for specified service addresses.

The Authorization to Receive Customer Information or Act upon a Customer's Behalf form is an inter-utility form that was developed by the Rule 22 Tariff Review Committee to permit account holders to specifically designate certain rights to third parties concerning PG&E account(s). The customer of record may permit a third party to receive information or transact business on his or her behalf. The customer must specify what information the third party is entitled to receive, what any act(s) the third party may transact on his or her behalf, and whether the authorization is being provided on a one time basis or on a longer term basis (not to exceed three years).

It is an inter-utility form that previously was developed and used pursuant to Utility Standard Practice 23 and has been in use since August 1, 2000. PG&E is using this opportunity to file the Authorization to Receive Customer Information or Act upon a Customer's Behalf form and include it in PG&E's tariffs as a sample form. Although there are no material changes to the form from the previously approved Utility Standard Practice 23 form, PG&E is filing the form to alleviate any customer confusion that may arise with the filing of a new form that was developed for property owners to authorize property managers to manage all aspects of the property owner's properties (see below).

Request Change of Mailing Address to a Third Party Change of Address (Form 79-1097)

The new Request Change of Mailing Address to a Third Party Change of Address form has been developed to allow a third party to represent a customer and act on the customer's behalf to change the mailing address for the mailing of all utility bills (gas and/or electric), bill inserts, discontinuance notices and other information normally sent to the mailing address on an account(s). This will allow project management firms to receive utility bills and information.

Property Manager Authorization to Receive Owner Information or Act on an Owner's Behalf (Form 79-1099)

The new Property Manager/Owner Authorization form is being filed to provide a property owner the ability to authorize a property manager to manage all aspects of the property owner's properties.
