

Access and Functional Needs Outage Social Post - Facebook

Facebook Graphic

The graphic is a Facebook post template for PG&E. It features a dark blue header with the PG&E logo and a question. Below is an orange banner with support information. The main content area has four light blue boxes with icons and text. A blue bracket groups 'Discounted hotel stays' and 'Food assistance' under the heading 'During certain outages:'. The footer includes the 2-1-1 logo, a call to action, a website link, and a disclaimer.

PG&E Would loss of power at your home create a health or safety risk for you or your family?

You may be eligible for the following support

-
Advanced notifications so you can prepare
-
Backup power for your medical needs
-
Discounted hotel stays
-
Food assistance

During certain outages:

2-1-1 Get Connected. Get Help.™ Call 211 to connect with live agents for more outage resources.

For more information, visit pge.com/afn. Message paid for by customers.

Caption: Would a power outage put you or your family's health or safety at risk? Find out what resources your household could receive at pge.com/afn.

Access and Functional Needs Outage Social Post - Instagram

Instagram Graphic

The graphic is a vertical rectangle with a dark blue header and footer. The header contains the PG&E logo and a question. Below the header is an orange banner. The main body is divided into four light blue squares, each with an icon and text. A light blue banner spans the width of the four squares. The footer is orange and contains the 211 logo, contact information, and a disclaimer.

PG&E Would loss of power at your home create a health or safety risk for you or your family?

You may be eligible for the following support

-
Advanced notifications so you can prepare
-
Backup power for your medical needs
-
Discounted hotel stays
-
Food assistance

During certain outages:

211 Call 211 to connect with live agents for more outage resources.
Get Connected. Get Help.™

For more information, visit pge.com/afn.
Message paid for by customers.

Caption: Would a power outage put you or your family's health or safety at risk? Find out what resources your household could receive at pge.com/afn.

Access and Functional Needs PSPS Social Post - Facebook

Facebook Graphic

The graphic is a Facebook post template for PG&E. It features a dark blue header with the PG&E logo and a question about PSPS. Below this is an orange banner stating eligibility for support. The support is detailed in four light blue boxes with icons: a smartphone for notifications, a battery for medical backup power, a hotel for discounted stays, and a grocery bag for food assistance. A yellow footer contains the 2-1-1 logo and a call to action to call 211. The bottom of the graphic has a white bar with a link to pge.com/afn and a disclaimer that the message is paid for by customers.

PG&E Would your health or safety be at risk if your home lost power during a Power Safety Power Shutoff (PSPS)?

You may be eligible for the following support

-  Advanced notifications so you can prepare
-  Backup power for your medical needs
-  Discounted hotel stays
-  Food assistance

2-1-1 Get Connected. Get Help.™ Call 211 to connect with live agents for more outage resources.

For more information, visit pge.com/afn. Message paid for by customers.

Caption: If a PSPS would put you or your family's health or safety at risk, you may be able to get extra support. For more information visit pge.com/pspsupdates.

Access and Functional Needs PSPS Social Post - Instagram

Instagram Graphic

The graphic is a vertical rectangle with a dark blue header and footer. The header contains the PG&E logo and a question. Below the header is an orange banner. The main body is divided into four light blue squares, each with an icon and text. The footer contains the 2-1-1 logo, a call to action, and a disclaimer.

PG&E Would your health or safety be at risk if your home lost power during a Power Safety Power Shutoff (PSPS)?

You may be eligible for the following support

-
Advanced notifications so you can prepare
-
Backup power for your medical needs
-
Discounted hotel stays
-
Food assistance

2-1-1 Call 211 to connect with live agents for more outage resources.
Get Connected. Get Help.™

For more information, visit pge.com/afn.
Message paid for by customers.

Caption: If a PSPS would put you or your family's health or safety at risk, you may be able to get extra support. For more information visit pge.com/pspsupdates.