

Find the support that you need

Qualified households of all sizes may be eligible for assistance programs

Are you currently enrolled in the CARE or FERA energy discount program?

YES

NO

You may qualify for free energy-efficient home upgrades through the Energy Savings Assistance Program.

Check the income guidelines at pge.com/esa

You may qualify for debt forgiveness to reduce unpaid balances on energy bills through the Arrearage Management Plan (AMP).

Log in to your pge.com account to see if you are eligible.

Are you past due on your energy bills?

YES

NO

Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) provides financial assistance for eligible household energy costs.

Check the income guidelines at pge.com/liheap

Explore Budget Billing to even out energy costs and keep your monthly payments predictable.

Learn more at pge.com/budgetbilling

Are you currently enrolled in a public assistance program?

YES

NO

You may automatically qualify for the California Alternate Rates for Energy (CARE) program a monthly energy discount of 20% or more, if you participate in programs like:

- Women, Infants, and Children (WIC)
- CalFresh/SNAP
- Medicaid/Medi-Cal

Apply today at pge.com/care

You may qualify for the Family Electric Rate Assistance (FERA) program, a monthly electricity discount of 18% for eligible households.

Check the income guidelines at pge.com/fera

Explore all assistance programs here:

