PG&E 2016 Energy Storage Offer Form Webinar Q&A
January 10, 2017

1. How does a Participant submit an offer that does not have a standard input on the Offer Form?

In many cases the Offer Form has the option to choose “Other” on dropdowns which will enable free text fields where you can type in additional information. PG&E also recommends using the available text boxes located throughout the Offer Form to further expand on the proposed project.

2. If Participants select a specific Lithium Ion battery or has not decided on a specific Lithium Ion battery, what should the Participant choose?

In the “Lithium Battery Type” field the Participant can choose “Other” and give additional information in the free text field.

3. If a Participant is submitting both 3rd Party Owned and Utility Owned offers does the Participant need to register for both Power Advocate sites?

Yes, Participants need to register for both Power Advocate sites. Links are located on the PG&E Energy Storage website. Participants must submit offers to the applicable Power Advocate site.

4. Can documents that have been uploaded to Power Advocate later be deleted?

Yes, Participants can delete files that have been uploaded to Power Advocate.

5. When submitting an offer for the Behind-the-Retail Meter Capacity Storage Agreement how should the Project Address fields be completed if the Participant does not yet know this information?

The project address fields on the Offer Form are no longer required in version 4 of the Offer Form. Please include all known information in the available text box.

6. If Participant is a company located outside of the United States, what should be entered in for the “State” field on the Participant Information tab?

If Participant is not located in the United States, “N/A” should be chosen for the “State” field on the Participant Information tab.
