<sup>1</sup> Ex Ante Estimated MW = In compliance with Decision 08-04-050, the values presented herein are based on the April 1, 2014 Load Impact Report for Demand Response. The values reported are calculated by using the monthly ex ante average load impact per customer multiplied by the number of currently enrolled service accounts for the reporting month, where the ex ante average load impact is the average hourly load impact for an event that would occur from 1 - 6 pm on the system peak day of the month. The Ex Ante Estimated MW value for the aggregator programs, e.g., AMP and CBP are the monthly nominated MW.

<sup>2</sup> Ex Post Estimated MW = In compliance with Decision 08-04-050, the values presented herein are based on the April 1, 2014 Load Impact Report for Demand Response. The values reported are calculated by using the annual ex post average load impact per customer multiplied by the number of currently enrolled service accounts for the reporting month, where the ex post load impact per customer is the average load impact per customer for those customers that may have participated in an event(s) during all actual event hours in the preceding year when or if events occurred. New programs report "n/a", as there were no prior events.

<sup>3</sup> There is also another group of customers on the Critical Peak Pricing (CPP also known as PDP) rate, e.g., small business and medium C&I customers, who are enrolled on CPP on a purely voluntary basis. This group of customers is referred to as the voluntary CPP customers. The great majority of these service accounts are associated with a single business entity and do not respond on event days. These voluntary CPP participants inflate the enrollment number because they are not representative of the small business or medium C&I populations that will default onto CPP in coming years. Load impacts for these customers are presented in the PG&E electronic ex post load impact table generator; but it is important to remember that their load impacts do not reflect what would be expected from the small business and medium C&I customer classes in the future under default CPP.

NOTE: Readers should exercise caution in interpreting or using the estimated MW values found in this report in either the ex post or ex ante columns. Ex post estimates reflect historic event(s) that have taken place during specific time periods and actual weather conditions by a mix of customers that participated on event day(s). Ex ante forecasts account for variables not included in the Ex post estimate such as normalized weather conditions, expected customer mix during events, expected time of day which events occur, expected days of the week which events occur, and other lesser effects etc. An Ex ante forecast reflects forecast impact estimates that would occur between 1 pm and 6pm during a specific DR program's operating season, based on 1-in-2 (normal) weather conditions if all NOTE: AUG ILP corrected inaccurate data reported in July for AMP and CBP Service Accounts and ExAnte MW.

Some programs may experience no events or few events while other programs may operate regularly depending on event triggers. For existing programs, the average ex post load impact per customer SA_ID remains constant across all months. The average load impact is "N/A" for programs having no prior events. Commercial SmartAC was not called in 2013; its average-customer impact reported here is from the April 2, 2012 filing.

<sup>4</sup> Pursuant to Commission guidance in D.14-05-016, p.118 and Finding of Fact 17, PG&E redacted the load reduction MW (Max Hourly) in the Public Version because there were fewer than 15 customers involved or a single customer in the group account for more than 15 percent of the aggregated total.

<sup>4</sup> Pursuant to Commission guidance in D.14-05-016, p.118 and Finding of Fact 17, PG&E redacted the load reduction MW (Max Hourly) in the Public Version because there were fewer than 15 customers involved or a single customer in the group account for more than 15 percent of the aggregate.

<sup>5</sup> SmartAC operational testing is conducted in rotating groups throughout the reported event hours. Customers are divided into ten groups and each group consists of ~14k customers. Each group is cycled in 1 1/2 - 3 1/2 increments with half an hour overlaps. In the case of 6/30, two groups were simultaneously for 3 1/2 hours. On 7/30, ~136k customers were cycled in 1 1/2 - 3 1/2 hour increments with two groups overlapping in the 2:30-6 timeframe.

Notes:

<sup>1</sup>Statewide Marketing refers to the one year of funding, which is equal to $3.5 million, to be used for an emergency alert campaign as per Decision 12-04-045 Ordering Paragraph 19.

<sup>2</sup>Utility Marketing includes all activities to market individual utility programs or rates, demand response concepts, and customer tools, that were approved or directed by Decision 12-04-045, whether or not the marketing budget was approved as a line item in the Decision. For example, PG&E should not include marketing for TOU and PDP because funding was authorized in another proceeding. However, PG&E must document all amounts spent on marketing individual demand response programs such as Peak Choice even though a specific marketing budget was not approved for the program. This example applies to all of the utilities. The programs and activities listed in item II of the template are meant as examples, and may not be exhaustive. However, the utilities must include all programs or rates that meet this description. The totals for Items II, III and IV should be equal.

<sup>3</sup>The 2012 Authorized Budget for Integrated Demand Side Marketing includes the budget for Integrated Marketing & Outreach ($304,500) and Integrated Education & Training ($61,000).

<sup>4</sup>The Total Authorized Budget for Utility Marketing includes the Integrated Demand Side Marketing budget for 2012 and the local ME&O (DR Core Marketing & Outreach and Education & Training) budget for 2012-14.
