

Energy Advisor for Business

MAY 2015

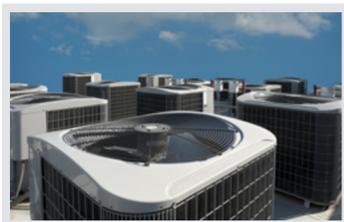

SHARE

7 no-cost water conservation strategies

Now more than ever, it's essential to cut back on water use. By implementing these strategies, you'll be better prepared to save water and money.

Save water

Get your cooling system ready for summer heat

Don't lose your cool when summer's hot temperatures roll in. With these tips, you can maximize your cooling system's performance — saving you money and stress all summer long. Plus, check out how programmable thermostats can help you maximize savings and comfort.

Get tips

Save on your electric bill with time-of-use rates

We're committed to helping you manage costs, especially during summer peak demand periods. PG&E time-of-use rate plans do just that. Explore your options and find out why businesses are switching to these plans.

Learn more

Knowledge is power

You know that the more you understand about your market, customers and competition, the more successful your business will be. With our free Business Energy Checkup tool, you can take a closer look inside your business and discover when, where and how you can use energy more efficiently. A checkup can save you up to 25% on annual energy usage.

Learn more

Electrical safety is good for business

Did you know electrical injuries result in an average of 13 days away from work? Reduce your risk and help keep your workplace safe with these tips.

Stay safe

BUSINESS RESOURCES

We've got the tools you need to ramp up your savings, productivity and more:

Rebates

Explore PG&E's vast rebate offerings

Training courses

Take a free class to learn new ways to enhance your business

Renewables

Find out how to put solar and renewable energy to work for your business