

Energy Advisor for East Bay Businesses

JUNE 2015

SHARE

Progress in the East Bay: A letter from your local PG&E leader

There's a lot of good work going on in the the East Bay area! Hear from Laura Wetmore, your Division Leader, about the solutions and savings we're working hard to provide businesses like yours.

Read letter

Connect to savings from Energy Watch Partners

You know PG&E is your source for energy savings and efficiency upgrades. And we know businesses in East Bay span a wide range of industries. That's why we've joined forces with the local government to create the Energy Watch Partnership. Through this program, you can receive targeted energy-saving solutions straight from local companies.

Learn more

Serving up energy savings at the Food Service Technology Center

Did you know PG&E's Food Service Technology Center (FSTC) — a leading provider of energy efficiency solutions for foodservice operations — is right in San Ramon? From expert insights to educational seminars to energy-efficient equipment rebates, the center offers countless ways to help businesses save.

Explore the FSTC

20 Sustainable Products eBook download

Don't miss out on these must-know sustainability products that will help your business conserve energy, curb expenses and cut waste.

Free download

Call 811 before you dig

From a big project to a little job, calling 811 two working days before you dig gets your underground lines marked. It's the free service that helps businesses in the East Bay stay safe from start to finish.

Dig safely

Spotlight

PG&E's East Bay team serves Alameda County, which includes the Tri-Valley, Tri-Cities and Eden areas.

See our progress

