

Energy Advisor for Business

JUNE 2015

SHARE

5 strategies to cut down cooling costs

Don't let summer cooling costs get out of control. Save money and improve system performance with these measures.

Stay cool

Has your business switched to a programmable thermostat yet?

If not, you're missing out on easy energy savings — and smaller cooling bills this summer!

Make the switch

Inspiring employees to save water

Installing or upgrading to efficient fixtures and equipment at your business is a crucial piece of the water conservation puzzle. And so are your employees. Here are some easy ways to motivate them and help California fight the drought.

Save together

20 Sustainable Products eBook download

Don't miss out on these must-know sustainability products that will help your business conserve energy, curb expenses and cut waste.

Free download

Call 811 before you dig

From a big project to a little job, calling 811 two working days before you dig gets your underground lines marked. It's the free service that helps you stay safe from start to finish.

Dig safely

BUSINESS RESOURCES

We've got the tools you need to ramp up your savings, productivity and more:

Rebates

Explore PG&E's vast rebate offerings

Training courses

Take a free class to learn new ways to enhance your business

Renewables

Find out how to put solar and renewable energy to work for your business