

Energy Advisor for Sacramento Businesses

JUNE 2015

SHARE

Progress in Sacramento: A letter from your local PG&E leader

There's a lot of good work going on in the Sacramento area! Hear from Becky Johnson, your Division Leader, about the solutions and savings we're working hard to provide businesses like yours.

Read letter

Connect to savings from our partners

You know PG&E is your source for energy savings and efficiency upgrades. And we know Sacramento businesses span a wide range of industries. That's why we work with a variety of companies to provide you with targeted energy-saving solutions.

Find ways to save

New gas training facility coming to City of Winters

The state-of-the-art Gas Operations Technical Training Center will soon be built in Winters. It will provide hands-on experience and superior training for PG&E employees, ensuring we always deliver the best-in-class service California deserves.

Find out more

20 Sustainable Products eBook download

Don't miss out on these must-know sustainability products that will help your business conserve energy, curb expenses and cut waste.

Free download

Call 811 before you dig

From a big project to a little job, calling 811 two working days before you dig gets your underground lines marked. It's the free service that helps Sacramento-area businesses stay safe from start to finish.

Dig safely

Spotlight

Sacramento Division

PG&E's Sacramento Division serves Sacramento, Solano, Yolo and Colusa Counties.

See our progress

