

Energy Advisor for Business

MAY 2014

SHARE

Energy-saving tips for your office equipment

U.S. businesses spend more than $6 billion to power computers and office equipment, with much of that energy use being wasted. Improve your office's energy efficiency — and bottom line — with these low-cost tips.

Start saving

Rebate changes coming soon

Title 24 building code upgrades, which take effect July 1, 2014, will impact many of our rebates and incentive programs. Find out more on our FAQ page.

Learn more

Water conservation: Every drop counts

With much of California under extreme drought conditions, water conservation efforts are critical. You can help by taking simple steps to better manage your business' water use.

Find out how

Ready to dig? Call 811 first.

Before you begin digging or landscaping, call 811. It's a free service that finds and marks underground utility lines so you can complete your project safely, prevent costly damage, and avoid service interruptions.

Get the scoop

Keep your business safe from fires

Fires can endanger your staff and customers and damage your facility. Take action now to protect your business from fire.

Stay safe

pge.com | subscribe | privacy | disclosure | unsubscribe

For inquiries, please do not reply to this e-mail. Submit feedback via Contact Us. "PG&E" refers to Pacific Gas and Electric Company, a subsidiary of PG&E Corporation, 77 Beale St. San Francisco, CA 94105. © 2014 Pacific Gas and Electric Company. All rights reserved. These offerings are funded by California utility customers and administered by PG&E under the auspices of the California Public Utilities Commission.