Educational Resources

Attention Parents!

Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) offers special opportunities for PTAs to raise money for their organizations while contributing to crucial energy conservation programs. We also offer free programs, games, activities and resources to help teachers deliver interactive lessons on energy, conservation, environment, and safety, as well as information about PG&E scholarships, internships, green careers and more. Plus, we offer rebates and incentives to school facilities that work with us to implement energy efficiency, demand response and renewable energy.
