

Business Energy Checkup :30

Audio Description

Host Julia, a PG&E Energy Advisor with long dark hair wearing a light blue shirt, is walking through the well-stocked Brisbane hardware store in Brisbane, California. The store-owner is seen on his computer checking his PG&E account. Footage cuts between Julia walking through the store and the store-owner on his computer. Then Julia speaks with the store-owner and smiles.

The closing graphic reads "Save Energy, Save Money"
"pge.com/businessenergycheckup"

Transcript

- While every business is unique, everyone is looking for ways to cut expenses. And that where PG&E's online Business Energy Check-Up Tool can really help. You can use it to track your actual energy use. Find rebates that make equipment upgrades more affordable. Even develop a customized energy plan for your company. This of it as a way to take more control over your operating costs. And yet another energy saving opportunity from PG&E.

- [Voiceover] Find new ways to save energy and money with PG&E's Business Energy Check-Up.