Advice 3623-E-A
(Pacific Gas and Electric Company ID U 39 E)

Public Utilities Commission of the State of California

Subject: Supplemental Filing for Power Sales Agreements Between PG&E and Potrero Hills Energy Producers, LLC, and Sunshine Gas Producers, LLC

Introduction

Pacific Gas and Electric Company (“PG&E”) submits this supplemental filing to Advice Letter 3623-E that requests California Public Utilities Commission (“Commission”) approval of two Renewable Power Purchase Agreements (“PPAs”), one with Potrero Hills Energy Producers (“Potrero”) and the other with Sunshine Gas Producers, LLC (“Sunshine”), (collectively the “Projects”). PG&E, Potrero and Sunshine have agreed to amendments to the PPAs (“Amendments”) since Advice Letter 3623-E was originally filed. This supplemental filing includes the Amendments. Each Amendment lowers the contract price until the seller passes the California Independent System Operator’s (“CAISO”) deliverability assessment test and is able to provide Resource Adequacy (“RA”) attributes to PG&E. In addition, the Amendments clarify specific terms in the original PPAs and also modify the PPAs to include certain standard terms and conditions required by Decision (“D.”) 10-03-021, as amended by D.11-01-025.

Background and Summary of Amendments

The PPAs resulted from negotiations between PG&E and DTE Biomass Energy, Inc. (“DTEB”) Potrero is a wholly-owned subsidiary of DTEB, and Sunshine is a 50-50 joint venture between Landfill Energy Systems (“LES”) and DTEB. PG&E filed the PPAs for Commission approval on February 25, 2010, in Advice Letter 3623-E, which is currently pending before the Commission.

Potrero is an 8 megawatt ("MW") facility in Suisun City, California, expected to produce up to 56 gigawatt hours ("GWh") per year, and Sunshine is a 20 MW facility in Sylmar, California, expected to produce 140 GWh per year. The Sunshine Project is expected to commence commercial operation in December 2014, and the Potrero Project is expected to commence operation in June 2015. Under the original PPAs, PG&E agreed to purchase bundled RPS-eligible power and capacity from the Projects. The Sellers anticipate, however, that they will not be able to deliver the RA capacity initially as provided in the original PPAs because of expected delays in obtaining CAISO Deliverability Assessments. The Amendments modify the PPAs to allow deliveries to include only RPS-eligible bundled energy and non-RA-eligible capacity until the Projects obtain all necessary CAISO approvals for capacity to be counted under the RA rules. The Amendments also include a contract price reduction to reflect the reduced value for deliveries as a result of not receiving RA-eligible capacity. The price reduction reflects the RA value assumed by PG&E when it evaluated the Projects.

The Amendments also clarify certain guaranteed milestones in the PPAs.

In addition, the Amendments provide clarity on the necessity of and timing to obtain CPUC Approval to authorize future agreements between the parties regarding the allocation of greenhouse gas (“GHG”) Costs.

Finally, the Amendments modify the original PPAs to conform the provisions to the standard terms and conditions set forth in D.10-03-021 as modified by D.11-01-025. The PPAs as amended contain provisions that conform exactly to the “non-modifiable” terms set forth in D.10-03-021 as modified by D.11-01-025 and in previous decisions, including D.07-11-025, D.08-04-009, and D.08-08-028. The applicable non-modifiable terms may be found in the following sections and pages of the Amendments:

The Amendments are attached as Confidential Appendix A. Confidential Appendix B provides further explanation of the terms modified by the Amendments.

The Amendments Will Benefit PG&E Customers

PG&E is aggressively pursuing reasonably priced and viable opportunities to provide its customers with incremental renewable power in an effort to meet the state’s current and prospective RPS goals. The Amendments have several benefits. First, by recognizing the challenges faced by new projects under the current RA rules, the Amendments increase the viability of these new in-state biomass projects and the certainty of deliveries to PG&E of RPS-eligible energy from the Projects. Second, by decreasing the contract price for deliveries that do not include RA-eligible capacity, the Amendments provide continued incentives to the Seller to qualify for RA while appropriately valuing the actual deliveries. The price reduction included in the Amendments reflects the RA value assumed by PG&E when it evaluated the Projects.

DEVELOPMENT OF DAVID LEWIS
SEEKING CONFIDENTIAL TREATMENT
FOR CERTAIN DATA AND INFORMATION
CONTAINED IN ADVICE LETTER 3623-E-A
(PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY - U 39 E)

I, David Lewis, declare

1. I am presently employed by Pacific Gas and Electric Company ("PG&E"), and have been an employee at PG&E since February 2008. My current title is Director within PG&E’s Energy Procurement organization. In this position, my responsibilities include negotiating PG&E’s Renewables Portfolio Standard Program ("RPS") Power Purchase Agreements. In carrying out these responsibilities, I have acquired knowledge of PG&E’s contracts with numerous counterparties and have also gained knowledge of the operations of electricity sellers in general. Through this experience, I have become familiar with the type of information that would affect the negotiating positions of electricity sellers with respect to price and other terms, as well as with the type of information that such sellers consider confidential and proprietary.

3. Attached to this declaration is a matrix identifying the data and information for which PG&E is seeking confidential treatment. The matrix specifies that the material PG&E is seeking to protect constitutes the particular type of data and information listed in Appendix 1 of D.06-06-066 and Appendix C of D.08-04-023 (the "IOU Matrix"), and/or constitutes information that should be protected under General Order 66-C. The matrix also specifies the category or categories in the IOU Matrix to which the data and information corresponds, if applicable, and why confidential protection is justified. Finally, the matrix specifies that: (1) PG&E is complying with the limitations specified in the IOU Matrix for that type of data or information, if applicable; (2) the information is not already public; and (3) the data cannot be aggregated, redacted, summarized or otherwise protected in a way that allows partial disclosure. By this reference, I am incorporating into this declaration all of the explanatory text in the attached matrix that is pertinent to this filing.

I declare under penalty of perjury, under the laws of the State of California, that to the best of my knowledge the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on April 13, 2011 in San Francisco, California.

This Appendix contains the First Amendments. Disclosure of the First Amendments would provide valuable market sensitive information to competitors. Since negotiations are still in progress with bidders from the 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, and 2009 solicitations and with other counterparties, this information should remain confidential. Release of this information would be damaging to negotiations. Furthermore, the counterparty to the First Amendments has an expectation that the terms of the First Amendments including price will remain confidential pursuant to confidentiality provisions in the original PPAs.

Independent Evaluator Report
PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY
BILATERAL CONTRACT EVALUATION

ADVICE LETTER REPORT OF THE INDEPENDENT EVALUATOR ON AMENDED CONTRACTS WITH SUNSHINE GAS PRODUCERS, LLC AND POTRERO HILLS ENERGY PRODUCERS, LLC

APRIL 12, 2011
SUMMARY

This report provides an independent opinion about amendments to contracts between Pacific Gas and Electric Company (“PG&E”) and two project subsidiaries of DTE Energy (“DTE”) for the output of two proposed landfill gas-fueled generators. The two subsidiaries¹ are Sunshine Gas Producers, LLC (“Sunshine”) and Potrero Hills Energy Producers, LLC (“Potrero”), which propose to develop, construct, and operate facilities in Los Angeles County and Solano County, respectively. An independent evaluator (“IE”), Arroyo Seco Consulting (“Arroyo”) had prepared and submitted IE reports to accompany PG&E’s advice letter filing for those contracts.² In those prior IE reports Arroyo had expressed an opinion that these two contracts merited California Public Utilities Commission (“CPUC”) approval, based on their moderate to high value, low to moderate price, moderate project viability, moderate portfolio fit, and ability to contribute to long-term Renewables Portfolio Standard (RPS) goals.

Arroyo has reviewed the proposed execution versions of amendments to those two Power Purchase Agreements with Sunshine and Potrero, and has updated its prior analyses of the projects against the evaluation criteria used by the utility in selecting proposals in competitive solicitations. The major findings are:

- Arroyo did not directly observe the project-specific negotiations, but was contemporaneously briefed on them by the PG&E team and has reviewed correspondence between the parties including draft contract amendments; based on that, the IE believes that negotiations were conducted in a manner fair to ratepayers and competing developers;

- Some of the changes made by these contract amendments are beneficial to ratepayers. The most significant changes provide a financial remedy for the project companies to compensate ratepayers rather than to undergo an event of default that would lead to early termination of a contract, under certain circumstances. Arroyo’s opinion is that this change is beneficial to ratepayers.

- In an updated comparison, the amended contracts still rank attractively in comparison to competing proposals; Arroyo’s opinion is that:

¹ The Sunshine project company is 50/50 co-owned by DTE Biomass Energy Inc. and Landfill Energy Systems, LLC, which itself is co-owned by Energy Investors Fund (through its United States Power Fund III L.P. private equity vehicle for investors) and Enpower Corp. The DTE Biomass Energy team played the lead role in negotiating the Sunshine contract and for brevity the counterparty will be referred to in this appendix as DTE.

The net valuation of both contracts as amended rank as moderate to high in net valuation compared to competing alternatives available to PG&E.

The contract prices rank as moderate.

The fit of both these resources with PG&E’s supply portfolio will rank as moderate.

The project viability of the Sunshine project ranks as moderate. The project viability of the Potrero Hills project now ranks high, as the project has made progress in its interconnection and permitting processes.

Both projects will contribute to RPS Goals, with contributions, in particular, towards compliance with the biomass goal set by Executive Order S-06-06.

On that basis, Arroyo’s opinion is that the contract amendments to the PPAs with Potrero and Sunshine merit CPUC approval.

Details of the analyses and narratives that underlie this opinion may be found in the confidential appendix to this report.
