Andrew GalvanRe: Notice of Proposed Real Property Disposition – Richmond Brickyard Cove

Dear Tribal Leader:

We are writing to notify you that Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) plans to sell a vacant property in Richmond. Located on Brickyard Cove Road at Old Kiln Way, the property consists of ±5.91 acres of vacant land over two contiguous parcels. The enclosed Property Information Sheet provides additional factual background relating to the property. PG&E is disposing of the property because it was formerly a gasholder, however, its tank and associated equipment were removed the late 1980's. It has been vacant since that time and it is surplus property.

A record search of the California Native American Heritage Commission's Sacred Lands File has identified the above-referenced property to be within The Ohlone Indian Tribe's ancestral territory. We are providing this notification consistent with the requirements of the California Public Utilities Commission's (Commission) Land Disposition Policy adopted December 5, 2019, Investor-Owned Utility Real Property-Land Disposition – First Right of Refusal for Disposition of Real Property Within the Ancestral Territories of California Native American Tribes.⁶ Under this Land Disposition Policy, the tribe is provided a right of first refusal on the real property before PG&E may put the property on the market.

In accordance with the Land Disposition Policy, the tribe has ninety (90) days to respond to this notification as to its interest in acquiring the property by providing a written offer. PG&E supports the Commission's objective of ensuring tribal interests are appropriately considered in any sale of its property. For this reason, we are offering to consult with the tribe regarding its interest in acquiring the property within the 90 days. In addition, we appreciate any input, comments or information you would like to share regarding any cultural resources that may exist on the property. We will ensure your input is provided to the Commission as it reviews any future disposition of the property.

⁶ The Commission's Land Disposition Policy is available at its website, www.cpuc.ca.gov/tribal.
