

PG&E Bar Date Extension FAQ for Website

1. What is a Bar Date?

- The Bar Date is the last day by which Proofs of Claim must be filed if any person or entity believes they are owed money by PG&E for the period prior to the Chapter 11 filing date of January 29, 2019.
- The Bar Date has been extended to midnight on April 16, 2020, only for persons or entities that purchased or acquired PG&E's publicly traded debt or equity securities from April 29, 2015, through November 15, 2018, and who may have claims against PG&E for rescission of, or damages arising from, a purchase or sale of such publicly traded debt and equity securities.
- The Bar Dates for all other claims have now passed.
- The extended Bar Date for unfiled non-governmental fire claims was December 31, 2019 at 5 p.m. (Pacific Time). The Bar Date for all other claims was October 21, 2019 at 5 p.m. (Pacific Time).

2. Why did I recently receive a Bar Date Notice if the deadline has passed?

- The Bar Date has been extended to midnight on April 16, 2020, only for persons or entities that purchased or acquired PG&E's publicly traded debt or equity securities from April 29, 2015, through November 15, 2018 and who may have claims against PG&E for rescission of, or damages arising from, a purchase or sale of such publicly traded debt and equity securities.
- Please note that the receipt of this notice does not mean that you have a claim or that PG&E or the Bankruptcy Court believe you have a claim.
- If you are unsure whether you have a claim, you should consult with your own legal counsel.

3. What is a Proof of Claim?

- A "Proof of Claim" is the official form that a creditor or other interested party must submit in order to assert a claim against the Company.

4. I previously submitted a Proof of Claim in these Chapter 11 proceedings; do I need to resubmit one now?

- If you are a person or entity that purchased or acquired PG&E's publicly traded debt or equity securities from April 29, 2015, through November 15, 2018, and you believe you may have claims against PG&E for rescission of, or damages arising from, a purchase or sale of such publicly traded debt equity and securities, and you already filed a rescission or damage Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, you DO NOT need to file another Proof of Claim form now.

5. What happens if someone misses the Bar Date deadline to file a claim?

- The Bar Date has been extended to midnight on April 16, 2020, only for persons or entities that purchased or acquired PG&E's publicly traded debt or equity securities from April 29, 2015, through November 15, 2018, and who may have claims against PG&E for rescission of, or damages arising from, a purchase or sale of such publicly traded debt and equity securities.
- Any holder of a rescission or damage claim relating to the purchase or acquisition of PG&E's publicly traded debt or equity securities from April 29, 2015, through November 15, 2018, that fails to timely file a Proof of Claim by the extended midnight on April 16, 2020, Bar Date, may be barred from asserting their claims against the Company and may not receive a distribution on account of such claims going forward.

6. Who can submit a Proof of Claim?

- The Bar Date has been extended to midnight on April 16, 2020, only for persons or entities that purchased or acquired PG&E's publicly traded debt or equity securities from April 29, 2015, through November 15, 2018, and who may have claims against PG&E for rescission of or damages arising from, a purchase or sale of such publicly traded debt and equity securities.

- The Bar Dates for all other claims have now passed.

7. Where and how do I submit my Proof of Claim Form?

- These claims must be received by the extended Bar Date. So, if filing by mail, delivery must be completed before the extended Bar Date.
