

Fire Claimants FAQ – Extended Deadline

1. What is a Bar Date?

- The Bar Date is the last day by which Proofs of Claim must be filed if any person or entity believes they are owed money by PG&E for the period prior to the Chapter 11 filing date of January 29, 2019, including any claims arising out of or relating to any of the Northern California Fires that occurred prior to the petition date.
- The Bar Date has been extended to December 31, 2019, at 5 PM PT only for unfiled non-governmental fire claimants.
- The original deadline was set for October 21, 2019, at 5 PM PT. The original deadline still applies to all other types of claims.

2. Why did I receive the Bar Date Notice?

- The Bar Date Notice has been sent to all known parties that may potentially be owed money by PG&E.
- Please note that the receipt of this notice does not mean that you have a claim or that PG&E or the Bankruptcy Court believe you have a claim.
- If you are unsure whether you have a claim, you should consult with your own legal counsel.

3. What is a Proof of Claim?

- A “Proof of Claim” is the official form that a creditor or other interested party must submit in order to assert a claim against the Company.

4. Am I required to file a Fire Proof of Claim if I have already filed a lawsuit, or may be included in or represented by a class action suit, class Proof of Claim, or a similar representative action filed against PG&E?

- Yes. You or your authorized agent or attorney must file a Fire Proof of Claim form by December 31, 2019, for your Fire Claim even if you may be included in, or represented by, a purported class action, class suit, class proof of claim, or similar representative action filed against PG&E with respect to your Fire Claim. If you have additional questions regarding your pending lawsuit, class action suit, class proof of claim or similar representative action, you should consult with your legal counsel to assist you.
- You DO NOT need to file a Fire Proof of Claim if you already filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases that includes substantially all of the information requested in the applicable Fire Proof of Claim Form. All timely filed Fire Proof of Claim Forms shall be deemed filed against both of the Debtors.

5. I previously submitted a Proof of Claim in these Chapter 11 proceedings; do I need to resubmit one now?

- You DO NOT need to file a Fire Proof of Claim if you already filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases that includes substantially all of the information requested in the applicable Fire Proof of Claim Form. All timely filed Fire Proof of Claim Forms shall be deemed filed against both of the Debtors.

6. What happens if someone misses the Bar Date deadline to file a claim?

- The Bar Date deadline has been extended to December 31, 2019, at 5 PM PT only for unfiled non-governmental fire claimants.
- Any holder of a claim relating to the period before January 29, 2019, that fails to timely file a Proof of Claim by the extended December 31, 2019 Bar Date may be barred from asserting their claims against the Company and may not receive a distribution on account of such claims going forward.
