

Diablo Canyon Decommissioning Engagement Panel Member Profiles

David Baldwin – current term concludes May, 2021

David is a lifelong resident of San Luis Obispo County. Joining the Plasterers and Cement Masons Union Local # 775 in 1983, he was a Cement Mason until 1995 when he became a Cement Masons Local 600 representative, a position he held for 20 years. As a labor leader, he served in various roles, including Pension Trustee and Chairman of the Board for Taft Hartley Trust Funds and President of the Southern California District Council of Plasterers, Cement Masons & Shophands. David was an elected delegate and labor representative at the San Luis Obispo County Democratic Party where he was recognized as Labor Leader of the Year in 2013. In 2014, David was appointed by Gov. Brown to the 16th District Agricultural Association California Mid-State Fair Board of Directors, where he currently serves as Chairman of the Finance and Operations Committees. David now works in Public Works Labor Compliance for the Labor Management Compliance Council and is a member of Plumbers and Steamfitters Local 403.

Dena Bellman – current term concludes May, 2021

Dena comes to the panel with extensive planning and civic involvement experience. She has lived in San Luis Obispo County most of her life and works as a Senior Park and Recreation Specialist with California State Parks. Dena brings a strong knowledge of government and community to this effort. She has been active in many community-building efforts, having served as Vice Chair of United Way of SLO County, Board Treasurer for 5Cities Homeless Coalition, and Director for Arroyo Grande Grover Beach Chamber of Commerce Board. Dena also serves as a volunteer with ICARE international and has completed several humanitarian missions to Central and South America.

Lauren Brown – current term concludes May, 2020

Lauren served in the American Peace Corps in India, and obtained a Ph.D. in Organic Chemistry from the University of California, Riverside, when he returned. He co-founded JBL Scientific, a specialty biochemical company and moved to San Luis Obispo in 1973. In 1999 JBL Scientific was acquired by biotech company, Promega, and Lauren served as President of renamed Promega Biosciences until 2006, and subsequently served as President of another Promega subsidiary until 2008. In the community, Lauren has served on the YMCA Board, Chamber of Commerce Board, Chamber Economic Vision Task Force in 1992, the City of San Luis Obispo Economic Stability Task Force in 1993, as well as the Targeted Industries Task Force in 1997. Brown was honored by the San Luis Obispo Chamber of Commerce as the 2014 Citizen of the Year.

Diablo Canyon Decommissioning Engagement Panel Member Profiles

Sherri Danoff – current term concludes May, 2019

As an 18-year Avila Beach-area resident, Sherri is a land use planner with over 30 years of experience in California jurisdictions, largely with the public sector. She has a MA in Regional and Urban Planning from San Jose State University. Sherri's interest in decommissioning focuses on visitor and resident safety related to use of Avila Beach Drive, the narrow winding road providing one-way-in-and-out of the beach town and harbor. Because Avila has very high fire hazard, plus other hazards, she considers prevention of access congestion of particular importance, both during decommissioning and future uses of Diablo Canyon lands. Sherri has several and varied involvements in the local community.

Jon Franke – Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) Representative

Jon is Vice President of Safety and Health, Chief Safety Officer, for PG&E. Jon joined PG&E as Vice President, Generation Technical Services, in January 2017, and is currently the officer that oversees the decommissioning project. Prior to PG&E, he amassed more than 30 years of nuclear and energy industry experience while working in positions of increasing levels of responsibility in the U.S. Navy, and at Carolina Power and Light, Progress Energy, Duke Energy, PPL Corporation and Talen Energy.

Alex Karlin – current term concludes May, 2021

Alex has been an environmental lawyer for more than 40 years. He served as an Administrative Judge on the US Nuclear Regulatory Commission Atomic Licensing & Safety Board for 11 years, presiding over the Diablo Canyon license renewal and a portion of the Yucca Mountain adjudication. Alex was an Environmental Protection Agency headquarters enforcement attorney and also spent seven years with a nuclear remediation and decommissioning company. He has been a resident of the City of San Luis for three years and has owned property in Los Osos since 2003. Alex is active in the local community, teaches environmental classes, and is a hiker, birder, and docent at Montana de Oro.

Diablo Canyon Decommissioning Engagement Panel Member Profiles

Trevor Keith – current term concludes May, 2021

Trevor is a 21-year resident of the Central Coast and brings to the panel interests in public health and safety, the local effects of large land use changes, and economic impacts of the project. Currently, Trevor is the Director of San Luis Obispo County Planning and Building Department. Previous roles at County have included Division Manager and environmental consultant. Trevor's project experience has included large residential and commercial development, renewable energy generation, and Habitat Conservation Plans. He has coordinated all levels of California Environmental Quality Act and National Environmental Policy Act reviews and long-range planning efforts. He teaches at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, and holds a BS in Ecology and Systematic Biology and a MA in City and Regional Planning.

Scott Lathrop – current term concludes May, 2020

As a 63-year native resident of San Luis Obispo, Scott comes to the Panel with ancestry roots in and around Diablo Canyon. As a Chumash Native American, Scott's interest in the decommissioning project is twofold: to communicate the value of protecting cultural resources that are important to indigenous people from the region and to represent ratepayer and taxpayer interests regarding financial impacts. Scott has worked in county government, the private sector, and public schools, and he currently serves as Assistant Superintendent, Business Services for a public school district. He is a graduate of Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, and holds BA degrees in Industrial Technology and Education. He is California public schools certified Chief Business Officer and a licensed California class B general contractor.

Frank Mecham – current term concludes May, 2019

Frank is a fifth generation San Luis Obispo County resident and a ninth generation Californian. He was the first directly elected Mayor of Paso Robles, serving four terms. Elected First District Supervisor in 2008, Frank served on the board for eight years. He is a U.S. Navy Veteran, worked as an electrical contractor for 20 years and as a financial advisor for seven. Frank is married to Deb, with a combined family of six kids and nine grandkids. He has served on numerous boards and has nearly thirty years in public service.

Diablo Canyon Decommissioning Engagement Panel Member Profiles

Nancy O'Malley – current term concludes May, 2019

Nancy is an Internal Medicine physician with over 30 years of experience in a wide range of health care settings working with patients, their families and health care teams from many diverse backgrounds and cultures. She has a special interest in ensuring the health and safety of the decommissioning process. Nancy is a resident of Avila Beach where the environmental, traffic and economic impacts of decommissioning are of particular importance. She is a graduate of Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, and has been coming to the Central Coast all her life until she was able to permanently relocate to the community in 2015.

Linda Seeley – current term concludes May, 2020

Linda is a nurse-midwife and OB/GYN nurse practitioner, having worked and lived in SLO County for the past 35 years. She is an advanced facilitator of the Work that Reconnects as developed by Joanna Macy, Ph.D. Linda serves as vice-president and spokesperson for San Luis Obispo Mothers for Peace, is a member of the Sierra Club Nuclear-Free Core Team, and is a founding member and officer of the local nonprofit Biodiversity First! She is particularly concerned about safer storage of the highly irradiated nuclear waste at Diablo Canyon. Linda strives to give voice to the community on issues of transparency and safe, timely decommissioning.

Kara Woodruff – current term concludes May, 2020

Kara is a 26-year resident of San Luis Obispo and VP/Chief Compliance Officer of Blakeslee & Blakeslee. As former project director for The Nature Conservancy and Board President of American Land Conservancy, Kara has been directly involved in the conservation of over 100,000 acres and brings to the panel an impassioned interest in the conservation of the Diablo Canyon Lands, including Wild Cherry Canyon. Kara earned a BA in Business from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, and MA and JD degrees from Duke University. She is a licensed financial principal, active member of the State Bar, and proud mother of two daughters.

Chuck Anders – Facilitator

Chuck has over thirty years of experience facilitating complex issues in public and private sectors and founded Strategic Initiatives in 1996 to assist organizations in achieving their goals. He has designed and facilitated the successful outcome of numerous high-profile public engagement processes throughout California and the Southwest, including remediation strategies that protect public health and ecological resources in San Luis Obispo. He is a 20-year resident of the Central Coast and lives in Arroyo Grande. Chuck is a professional engineer, and as an active member of the community, is a past president of the San Luis Obispo County YMCA Board of Directors.