Peak Day Pricing is coming in November.

PG&E is here to help you understand what this transition means for your business.

Peak Day Pricing is an optional rate plan that helps keep our energy supply clean and reliable when the demand for electricity across the state reaches a critical peak, known as an Event Day.

What Peak Day Pricing means for your business:

- Higher rates from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. on 9 to 15 Event Days per year
- At all other times from May through October, rates are lower than time-of-use rates
- Participate risk-free your first year with Bill Protection
- Get day-ahead notice before every Event Day
- Enroll early or opt-out at any time
