Advice 4396-G/6108-E

(Pacific Gas and Electric Company ID U 39 M)

Public Utilities Commission of the State of California

Subject: Compliance with Decision 20-12-005 Ordering Paragraph 13 for Customer Deposits

Purpose

Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E or the Company) submits this Tier 2 Advice Letter in accordance with Ordering Paragraph (OP) 13 of the 2020 General Rate Case (GRC) Phase 1 Decision (D.) 20-12-005 (GRC Decision). For the reasons discussed below, PG&E proposes no reduction to its GRC period revenue requirements because it did not include customer deposits in its forecast.

Background

The Commission, in OP 13 of the GRC Decision, ordered: “[w]ithin 90 days from the date of this Order, Pacific Gas and Electric Company shall file a Tier 2 advice letter to adjust the revenue requirements authorized by this decision to reflect the prohibition against collecting Customer Deposits pursuant to Decision 20-06-003 which became effective on June 11, 2020.”

As provided in PG&E’s 2020 GRC opening testimony “consistent with prior GRCs and CPUC SP U-16, interest-bearing customer deposits has [sic] specifically been excluded from PG&E’s showing. The issue of customer deposits will be addressed in PG&E’s Cost of Capital proceeding, scheduled to be filed in 2019. [FN 1] In accordance with 2014 GRC Decision... PG&E is not making a customer deposit debt related adjustment in this GRC Application but will instead address it in the next Cost of Capital filing.”¹

On, April 22, 2019, PG&E filed its 2020 Cost of Capital Application, A.19-04-015.² Among other things, PG&E submitted a comprehensive review of the treatment of customer deposits in compliance with PG&E's 2014 GRC D.14-08-032 p. 624. PG&E recommended the continued treatment of customer deposits as was adopted in D.14-08-032. Under the proposal to continue the treatment in D.14-08-032, when cash from Customer deposits is used for utility operations, the customer deposits are assumed to replace an equal amount of conventional debt that otherwise would be financing rate base. On December 20, 2019, the Commission issued D.19-12-056 (Cost of Capital Decision). The Commission found that PG&E met its obligation to provide a review of the ratemaking for customer deposits and continued the existing treatment as proposed by PG&E.³ The Commission did not adopt a mechanism to update revenue requirements in the Cost of Capital Decision.

Proposal

As the Cost of Capital Decision did not direct PG&E to implement any revenue requirement adjustments and PG&E's 2020 GRC did not include customer deposits, PG&E's 2020 GRC revenue requirements should not be adjusted.

Protests

Anyone wishing to protest this submittal may do so by letter sent via U.S. mail, facsimile or E-mail, no later than March 24, 2021, which is 20 days after the date of this submittal. Protests must be submitted to:
