Advice 6213-E

(Pacific Gas and Electric Company ID U 39 E)

Public Utilities Commission of the State of California

Subject: Changes to Residential Delivery Minimum Bill Amount Per Decision 20-03-003

Purpose

This Advice Letter (AL) requests approval of changes to Pacific Gas & Electric Company's (PG&E's) residential Delivery Minimum Bill Amounts (DMBAs) for 2021 in compliance with Decision (D.) 20-03-003 (Decision), Decision Addressing Proposed Fixed Charge For Residential Customers.

Background

On March 19, 2020, the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC or Commission) issued D.20-03-003 in Phase 3 of the consolidated 2018 Rate Design Window Proceeding of PG&E, Southern California Edison (SCE), and San Diego Gas & Electric Company (SDG&E).<sup>1</sup> While this Decision did not approve PG&E's fixed charge proposal it did permit PG&E to increase its residential DMBA to account for inflation.

PG&E did not implement an increase to the DMBA in 2020. For 2021, the Decision permits PG&E to increase the DMBA by the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for urban customers (CPI-U) between 2019 and 2020.<sup>2</sup> Table 1 shows the CPI-U values for each month of 2019 and 2020, with the last row in each column showing the average monthly CPI-U values for each year.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Per D.20-03-003, PG&E is using the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Customers for the U.S. City Average for All Items (also known as CPI-U), prepared by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. See D.20-03-003, footnote 54, p. 25.

Table 1
 Historical Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers (CPI-U):
 U.S. City Average, All Items, By Month*

Month	2019	2020
Jan	251.712	257.971
Feb	252.776	258.678
Mar	254.202	258.115
Apr	255.548	256.389
May	256.092	256.394
Jun	256.143	257.797
Jul	256.571	259.101
Aug	256.558	259.918
Sep	256.759	260.280
Oct	257.346	260.388
Nov	257.208	260.229
Dec	256.974	260.474
Annual Average	255.657	258.811

* Source: <https://www.bls.gov/cpi/tables/supplemental-files/historical-cpi-u-202012.pdf>

The percentage increase in the CPI-U between the two years is calculated as follows:

$$\begin{aligned}
 \text{Pct Change in CPI-U} &= (2020 \text{ Annual Average CPI-U}) / (2019 \text{ Annual Average CPI-U}) \\
 &= 258.811 / 255.657 \\
 &= 1.012
 \end{aligned}$$

In other words, the CPI increased by 1.2 percent from 2019 to 2020. Applying this 1.2 percent inflation rate to the current $10.00 monthly DMBA applicable to non-California Alternate Rates for Energy (non-CARE) customers results in a $10.12 DMBA for these non-CARE customers. In a similar fashion, applying this same 1.2 percent inflation rate to the $5.00 monthly DMBA currently applicable to California Alternate Rates for Energy (CARE) provided under Schedule D-CARE, Family Electric Rate Assistance (FERA) provided under Schedule E-FERA, and Medical Baseline (Medical) customers (as codified in the underlying tariff on which a Medical Baseline customer takes service) results in a $5.06 DMBA for these three groups of customers.<sup>4</sup>

Implementation of the Proposed Rate Changes

The increases to the DMBA for residential customers are designed to be revenue-neutral (i.e., not change the total amount of revenue collected from the residential class). To maintain revenue-neutrality, an increase to the DMBA must be offset by corresponding decreases in volumetric (cent per kWh) charges. In order to minimize the number of rate changes for its residential customers in 2021, PG&E does not propose to implement this small change to the DMBA as a stand-alone rate change. Instead, PG&E proposes to delay the small increases to the DMBA for non-CARE and CARE/FERA/Medical customers (and the associated very small decreases to volumetric rates) until the date PG&E next changes rates for its residential customers.<sup>5</sup> In the advice letter requesting those rate changes, PG&E will also implement the $10.12 and $5.06 DMBA for non-CARE and CARE/FERA/Medical customers, respectively on all of its residential rate schedules (and correspondingly reduce volumetric rates on those schedules) to reflect the then-current approved billing determinants and revenue requirements.

Other than the small increases to the DMBA described above, which are offset by decreases in volumetric rates to ensure revenue neutrality, this submittal would not increase any current rate or charge, cause the withdrawal of service, or conflict with any rate schedule or rule.

Protests

***Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, PG&E is currently unable to receive protests or comments to this advice letter via U.S. mail or fax. Please submit protests or comments to this advice letter to EDTariffUnit@cpuc.ca.gov and PGETariffs@pge.com*****

Anyone wishing to protest this submittal may do so by letter sent via U.S. mail, facsimile or E-mail, no later than June 22, 2021, which is 20 days after the date of this submittal. Protests must be submitted to:

<sup>4</sup> Thus the DMBA for CARE, FERA and Medical customers will continue to be discounted 50 percent compared to the DMBA paid by other residential customers.

<sup>5</sup> At present, PG&E anticipates that the next change to its residential rates will occur on August 1, 2021; however, there is some chance that the next residential rate change may occur later in 2021.
