Advice 4381-G

(Pacific Gas and Electric Company ID U 39 G)

Public Utilities Commission of the State of California

Subject: Revision to Gas Rule 21 (Transportation of Gas) to update In-Kind Shrinkage Allowance Adjustments for Backbone Transmission and Distribution Service

Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) hereby submits revisions to PG&E's Gas Rule 21 — Transportation of Gas to update the gas in-kind shrinkage allowances for backbone transmission and distribution service pursuant to Decision (D.) 03-12-061. The affected tariff sheets are listed on Attachment 1.

Purpose

In-kind shrinkage allowances collect the lost and unaccounted for gas and the utility fuel use attributable to the volume of gas received by PG&E for transmission, distribution and storage service. In D.03-12-061, the California Public Utilities Commission (Commission or CPUC) authorized PG&E to update the in-kind shrinkage allowances annually or as necessary at other times of the year to match the actual shrinkage experienced on PG&E's system. This is reflected in Gas Preliminary Statement Part C — Gas Accounting Terms and Definitions, Part C.12.c., and Gas Rule 21, which state that PG&E may adjust distribution, transmission and storage shrinkage allowances annually or as necessary at other times of the year through advice letter submittals.

PG&E proposes revisions to its existing backbone transmission and distribution in-kind shrinkage allowances to be effective April 1, 2021.

Background

In Advice 4310-G, the Commission adopted PG&E's current transmission and distribution shrinkage base and adjustment allowances effective November 1, 2020, to match PG&E's November 2020 through October 2021 shrinkage forecast and to return a small over-collection cumulative imbalance. PG&E and Southern California Gas Company (SoCalGas) reached a settlement addressing over-delivery of gas by PG&E to SoCalGas arising from an interconnect meter error at PG&E's Kern River Station. As a result of this settlement, SoCalGas will return to PG&E 1.959 million dekatherms of gas during October 2020 through May 2021. Accordingly, PG&E proposes to return a like amount of gas to its customers. PG&E proposes a credit adjustment to the existing transmission and core seasonal distribution shrinkage allowances to be effective April 1, 2021, as described herein. The shrinkage adjustments will return 1.959 million dekatherms to account for the volumes paid back by SoCalGas. PG&E proposes to amortize these volumes over a 12-month period. PG&E will monitor actual shrinkage to determine if further adjustments are warranted.

Shrinkage Adjustments

The proposed total in-kind shrinkage Adjustment components of each allowance, are shown in the following table:

Proposed Total In-kind Shrinkage Allowance

	Current Effective In-Kind Shrinkage Base¹ Allowance	Current In-Kind Shrinkage Adjustment² Allowance (Credit)	Proposed Additional In-Kind Shrinkage Adjustment³ Allowance (Credit)	Proposed Total In-Kind Shrinkage Allowance (Base + Adjustments)	Proposed Total Change
Transmission – Redwood to Off-System	0.9%	0.0%	0.0%	0.9%	0.0%
Transmission – Mission to On/Off-System	0.0%	0.0%	0.0%	0.0%	0.0%
Transmission – All other backbone paths	1.3%	0.0%	-0.1%	1.2%	-0.1%
Distribution – Noncore	0.2%	0.0%	-0.1%	0.1%	0.0%
Distribution - Core Summer Season (Apr - Oct)	1.3%	-0.1%	-0.4%	0.8%	-0.4%
Distribution – Core Winter Season (Nov- Mar)	3.2%	-0.1%	-0.4%	2.7%	-0.4%

² The Adjustment Allowance is designed to recover (or return) any cumulative shrinkage imbalance forecasted to exist at the start of the effective period of the shrinkage allowances (November 1, 2020).

³ The Additional Adjustment Allowance is designed to recover (or return) any cumulative shrinkage imbalance forecasted to exist at the start of the effective period of the shrinkage allowances (April 1, 2021).

Distribution – Core (Annual) ⁴ (reference only)	2.5%	-0.1%	-0.4%	2.0%	-0.4%
---	------	-------	-------	------	-------

Based on the 2020-2021 shrinkage forecast, PG&E estimates that the proposed in-kind shrinkage allowances, including Adjustment components, will recover the forecasted shrinkage on PG&E's system plus return the additional over-collected cumulative shrinkage imbalance. PG&E will continue to monitor any cumulative shrinkage imbalance and will adjust the shrinkage allowances through advice letter submittals in the future, as necessary.

This submittal will not affect any other rate or charge, cause the withdrawal of service, or conflict with any other rate schedule or rule. Workpapers supporting the proposed changes are included in Attachment 3 to this submittal.

Tariff Revisions

The revised in-kind shrinkage allowances will be revised in Gas Rule 21, Section B. (Quantities).

- The above revised backbone transmission shrinkage allowance percentages will be reflected in Gas Rule 21, Section B.1.a.
- The above revised distribution shrinkage allowance percentages will be reflected in Gas Rule 21, Section B.1.b.

B. QUANTITIES OF GAS (Cont'd.)

1. IN-KIND SHRINKAGE ALLOWANCE (Cont'd.)

a. Backbone Transmission Shrinkage

A Customer transporting gas over PG&E's Backbone Transmission System shall deliver each day at the Receipt Point to PG&E an additional in-kind quantity of gas supply equal to a percent of total volume of gas to be delivered at the Receipt Point. Thus, the quantity to be nominated at the Receipt Point equals the quantity desired at the Delivery Point divided by (1 - x) where x is the decimal equivalent of the Backbone Transmission System In-Kind Shrinkage Allowance percentage, based on the transmission path utilized as follows:

Path	Percentage of In-Kind Shrinkage Base Allowance	Percentage of In-Kind Shrinkage Adjustment	Percentage of Effective In-Kind Shrinkage Allowance
Redwood to Off-System	0.9	-	0.9
Mission to On-System	0	-	0
Mission to Off-System	0	-	0
All other transmission	1.3	-0.1	1.2 (R)

Provided, however, that PG&E and the Customer shall not be prohibited under this Rule, where shrinkage requirements support a different shrinkage allowance, from mutually agreeing to a different shrinkage allowance for transportation over PG&E's Backbone Transmission System.

B. QUANTITIES OF GAS (Cont'd.)

1. IN-KIND SHRINKAGE ALLOWANCE (Cont'd.)

b. Distribution Shrinkage

For transportation on PG&E's Distribution System, an additional In-Kind Shrinkage Allowance shall apply, which is separate from backbone transmission and storage shrinkage. The Customer shall deliver each day to PG&E at the Citygate an additional in-kind quantity of gas supply equal to a percent of the total volume of gas flowing through the End-Use Customer's meter. Thus, the quantity to be nominated at the Citygate equals the quantity to be flowed through the meter multiplied by (1 + y) where y is the decimal equivalent of the Distribution System In-Kind Shrinkage Allowance percentage, as follows:

End-Use Customer	Percentage of In-Kind Shrinkage Base Allowance	Percentage of In-Kind Shrinkage Adjustment	Percentage of Effective In-Kind Shrinkage Allowance
Core – Summer Season (April - October)	1.3	- 0.5 (R)	0.8 (R)
Core – Winter Season (November – March)	3.2	- 0.5 (R)	2.7 (R)
Noncore Distribution	0.2	-0.1	0.1 (R)
Noncore Transmission*	–	–	–

As an example, for a Core End-Use Customer being served via the Redwood Path, the amount to be nominated at Malin is calculated as:

$$\text{Receipt Point Quantity} = \frac{\text{Est. Metered Usage} \times (1 + y)}{(1 - x)}$$

Where: x = decimal equivalent of the Backbone Shrinkage percentage, and y = decimal equivalent of the Distribution Shrinkage percentage

* Noncore Transmission Level End-Use Customers or Agents require no Distribution System In-Kind Shrinkage Allowance.
