Advice 4778-G-A/6994-E-A

(Pacific Gas and Electric Company ID U 39 M)

Public Utilities Commission of the State of California

Subject: Supplemental: Payment to Projects Lacking Separate Metering for Non-Incentivized Equipment

Purpose

PG&E submits this Supplemental Advice Letter (AL) to elevate the status of PG&E AL 4778-G-A/6994-E to a Tier 3 Advice Letter to request a limited exception to the Self Generation Incentive Program (SGIP) rule that requires SGIP-incentivized storage equipment to be metered separately from non-incentivized storage equipment. PG&E requests this exception only for residential customer applications that have an approved SGIP funds reservation on or before April 17, 2023 and fail to install separate metering for non-incentivized equipment due to no fault of their own. This supplement replaces the original advice letter and subsequent substitute sheet in their entirety.

Discussion

Decision (D.) 20-07-015¹ states in Finding of Fact 18 that non-incentivized storage equipment must be separately metered from SGIP incentivized equipment. Although not specifically stated in D.20-07-015 (as metering of non-incentivized equipment was not the focus of the decision), PG&E believes the decision clarifies that non-incentivized equipment must be metered separately so that the SGIP Measurement and Evaluation (M&E) vendor can accurately assess the data for only the incentivized systems. However, the existing language in the SGIP Handbook was not modified.²

¹ D.20-07-015, p. 54, Finding of Fact 18 ("SGIP does not prohibit customers from installing additional energy storage equipment at a property that would cause the total installed capacity at the site to be greater than the system sized according to SGIP requirements, but this additional equipment is ineligible for SGIP incentives and must be separately metered from any SGIP-incentivized equipment.").

² Specifically, Section 7.4.2 of the SGIP Handbook currently states: "All SGIP systems require installation of metering devices to measure and record electrical output or offset, waste heat, and fuel consumption for M&E purposes."

Since that time, PG&E has learned that it approved SGIP fund reservation requests for storage equipment that is metered in conjunction with non-incentivized equipment³. PG&E believes that these projects do not comply with the rule because the SGIP Handbook does not clearly reference “separate” metering. The PAs’ recently submitted advice letter (Center for Sustainable Energy Advice Letter Number 142-E) clarifies this requirement by adding language regarding the separate metering requirement. PG&E estimates the number of approved projects with an SGIP funds reservation on or before April 17, 2023⁴ and having non-incentivized equipment to be miniscule at less than 0.5% (~50 projects) of all approved projects since 2020 and a total incentive value of roughly $300,000.⁵

Requiring these customers to install additional equipment to satisfy the separate metering rule would be unfair to these customers. Separate metering of storage equipment is not the standard practice. They may not have the means to pay for the additional equipment and installed their projects with the expectation that they would receive their SGIP fund reservation based on the project for which they applied. These customers would have received their SGIP fund reservation absent the separate metering issue.

Moreover, the limited exception sought by this advice letter will not frustrate the purpose of the separate metering rule to enable M&E of the incentivized equipment. First, as discussed above, the number of projects implicated is extremely small. Second, M&E of the incentivized equipment can still be accomplished; the M&E evaluator can simply use data estimates for the non-incentivized equipment to isolate the data needed for M&E of the incentivized equipment. It is PG&E’s understanding that data estimation is a routine practice in connection with such M&E work.

Therefore, for all the above reasons, granting an exception to the separate metering rule for customers with an approved SGIP reservation as of April 17, 2023 is reasonable and fair to customers. PG&E requests that it be authorized to grant the requested exception. All SGIP applications approved after that date would continue to be subject to the separate metering rule in accordance with D. 20-07-015.

This submittal would not increase any current rate or charge, cause the withdrawal of service, or conflict with any rate schedule or rule.

³ Although equipment may be non-incentivized, the equipment is on the SGIP Public Equipment List.

⁴ As of April 17, 2023, PG&E notified all new SGIP applicants of the requirement that non-incentivized equipment be separately metered.

⁵ PG&E’s estimate is based on 16,062 paid residential applications since 2020 as of July 5, 2023, and an estimated 50 applications since 2020 that include non-incentivized equipment identified so far.

Protests

Anyone wishing to protest this submittal may do so by letter sent electronically via E-mail, no later than September 11, 2023, which is 20 days after the date of this submittal. Protests must be submitted to:
